ROMANCE AND REALITY.

If we remember right, we copied, some time ngo, from a Boston paper, an account of a runa way uffair, in which a brave girl, and a coward lover were the principal characters. The scene was a ferry-time, mid winter; and the point of the story was, that the fearful lover had not courage enough to trust his precious person to the ferry hoat, and the danger of the ice choun bered stream, although exhorted and stimulated by the example of his intended, for whom angry waves and floating ice had no terrors, when matrimony and the residence of a clergyman, on the opposite bank, were fall in view. She was wil nerves were weak; and at length, with a just tenacity, its specific gravity, all the characterismaid returned, unmarried, to the house of her guardian, whose opposition to the match had driven her to the choice of an elopement.

Another number of the 'far west' paper, in which the story first appeared, has found its way to the Atlantic borders; and in it we find the sequal of the tale, which we give in the language of the writer; who by the way, avers with all strict though quite poetical reality. The story is related by a correspondent of the Backwoodsman, published somewhere in Illinois.

ANECDOTE. -PUTNAM AND THE BRIT-ISH OFFICER.

It is well known that in the time of the old French war, much jealousy existed between the British and Provincial officers. A British Major deeming himself insulted by General (then Captain) Putnam, sent him a challenge. Putnam instead of giving a direct answer, requested the pleasure of a personal interview with the Major. He came to l'utnam's tent and found him seated on a small keg, quietly smoking his pipe, and demanded what communication, if any, Putnam lind to make, 'Why you know,' said Putnam, 'I'm but a poor miserable Yankee, that never fired a pistal in my life, and you must perceive, that if we fight with pistols, you must have an undue advantage over me-here are two powmatch in each, so if you will be so good as to seat yourself there, I will light the matches, and he who dares sit the longest without squirming exhortations to equat. The signal was given, and the matches lighted. Putnam continued smoking quite indifferently we hont watching at all the progressive diminution of the matches: but the British officer, though a brave fellow, could not help easing, longing, lingering looks downwards, and his terrors increased as the length of the match diminished. The spectators withdrew one by one to get out of the reach of the expected explosion. At length, when the lire was within an inch of the keg, the Major, unable to *She is the blood relative on the maternal side endure longer, jumped up, and drawing out his match, cried out, 'Putuum this is wilful murder, delirium tremens.

From the Ohio Statesman, of December 21. ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR.

At 3 o'clock on yesterday, both branches of the Legislature met in the Hall of the House of Representatives and preceeded to ballot for a U. S. Benjamin Tappan, Thomas Ewing, 50 Reuben Wood,

The whole number of votes in the General Assembly, is 108-57 democrats and 51 fcderalists. Mr Ewing it will be seen did not command the whole federal vote. It is proper to say that Mr Wood was not a candidate. 'The lebics were very neich crowded and the hoco poces were all hopes that the democrats would be divided, But thanks to the honest firmness of the Democratic members, they have again taught whiggery and all its isms, that when men are united on principles, they are invincible! That they are ready to make all personal sacrifice when their country demands it. In fact, wo never saw a time when the democratic party were so perfectly united on every principle of the National Administration as at present. It is as highly complimentary to Mr Van Buren, and most richly does he deservo it. DEATH OF ROBERT FURLONG, Jr.

Doubtless all our readers remember the trial of Richard P. Robinson, for the murder of Ellen Jewett, and equally well that the individual whose name heads this paragraph was a most material witness for the accused, he having proved an alibi in the case. In October last, he took passago on board the brig Wixford, Captain Munday, for Parto Cabollo, and on the third day out he began to evince symptoms of aberration of mind, evidently the presage of an attack of

While in this situation, he would mutter incolence, his conduct grew more outrageous, and his constant exclamations were that Ellen Jewett was before him. He got on deck and could not bo persuaded to come below, declaring that Ellen Jewett, was in the cabin concealed. As the attack subsided, he became more calm, and while sane stated to one of the officers of the vessel and a fellow passenger, a physician; that when, on the trial, he swore to the fact of Rebieson being in his store on the night of the murder, he believed it as firmly as that he lived, and would have sword to the same thing again, but that now he was perfectly convinced that such was not the fact, and that he was innocent of nav evil

On the second day his malady grew worse, and it was proposed to confine him, but he perched himself upon the gunwale of the vessel, and doelared that if any one approached him he would jump overboard. After several attempts to induce him to come aboard, he sprang into the sea, and a tub and ropes were at once thrown to him, but he sank without attempting to reach them. A senman on board the vessel then seized a plank and jnmped overboard, reached the unfortunate man, but by the time he was got on board, life was extinct, and all attempts to resuscitate him preved vnin. Next day the body was committed to the deep, with due solemnity.

THE USE OF FIRE ARMS.

The constant murders by pistols, rifles and Bowie-knives occurring in the western sections of our country, and set down as "unfortunate casualities," "unpleasant affairs," and "unpleasunt disputes," aru a great disgrace to the lawsto humanity, and to our national character. The most trifling dispute at table, or difference of opinion, or high word, is followed by a blow, and then out Bowie knife and commit murder-or perchance horsewhip the offending party, and then draw pistols on each other, and one or both are killed. This is not duelling-this is not a fair, organized, and arranged meeting to settle a great wrong--it is ruthanism, brutality, horrid passion, followed by open assassination; and anil a few of the survivors are hanged, we shall have no end of these seenes. As long as deadly weapons are carried about the person, they will be used in provocation. A very passionate man may draw on a slight insult and knile his adversary, and yet be very sorry for it, and his whole life may be embittered by the recollections of the event. Throw away your weapons, and then While taking on board and landing freight, I ways; we must all hang together.' From Congress we have but little to notice of iuterest. Mr Adams and Mr Wise, seem as usual to consume the time of Congress with long speeches, which are not likely to terminate in any good result. It is known that Mr Adams proposed to adopt rong measures against Mr Stevenson, our Minister to England, for his daring to resent an insult offered to himself and country, by Daniel O'Connell. On the 31st December, Mr Adams "sent a letter to the chair which was read hy the Clerk of the House. The letter was post marked Montgomery, Alabama, and was received by one of the last mails. The letter threalens Mr Adams with assassination; and the writer says he shall be here on the 2d January, (Wednesday) and will on that day, if opportunity offers, shoot Mr Adams in the Hall of the House of Representatives. The writer states further that he is a friend of Mr Stevenson, and feels himself as such aggrieved by Mr Adams' resolutions in relation to Mr Stevenson and Daniel O'Connell. The writer also states that when Mr C. Perry returns to the United States he will call J. Q. Adams to account. The writer, I believe, signs himself B.

"I am much pleased with your friend Mr Hart. He has taken the best likeness. (bust) of Gen. Jackson I ever saw. It is perfect, beyond any thing of the kind ever seen in this country."

How ridiculous men sometimes render themselves, by desiring to be conspicuous. On Monday, the last day of December, Mr Garland of Va. offered a resolution that when this House adjourn, it adjourn until Wednesday. Mr Shirrod Wils liams, of Kentucky, proposed instead of Wednosday, the first Monday of December next! Thus affecting to wish to close the session, without performing any of the important duties for which ho was sent to Congress. The proposition was too ridiculous, for even Mr Williams to have county. Relates to his return of his delinquent list of been serious in the proposition.

Thus has been brought to a close one of the most interesting and important subjects which have occupied the Kentucky Legislature for years. The debate was eminently creditable to the fally relations with a sister State, and aware at the same time of the delicate nature of the questions involved, pays her the high compliment of sending two of our distinguished statesmen, to reprethree days, by the exhibition of the Statue of sent in person the grievances of which Kentucky Cleopatra, on Friday, Saturday and Monday last. | complains. We have no fears but that they will be received with every mark of courtesy, and that the mission will tend, in a great degree, to allay all excitement, and place the future relations of the two States, upon that amiable basis which has so long characterized them.

We also learn from the Commonwealth, that

"Two millions of the stock to be subscribed by the State, and three millions by individuals, companies and State, and three minions by individuals, companies and corporations. On the amount to be taken by individuals, 25 per cent, will be required to be paid in eash at stated periods and by instalments. To enable the stockholders to raise the residue of the stock, they are autherized to execute mortgages upon real estate to the bank, which real estate is to be of twice the value of the stock to be secured, and to embrace the stock also paid in. Upon doing of which, the State issues her serip or bonds, to the bank for the benefit of the branch which has raised the subscriptions and secured the mort-gages, which serip is to bear an interest of 5 per cent., and not to be sold at less than par, and redeemable at such times as may be agreed on within five years after the expiration of the charter. The proceeds of the sale

Great Excitement in Boston!

TREMBLING AMONG THE MEDICAL FA-CULTY!!—We learn that the disingnished Dr. Watson, 276 Washington street, and Dr. S. C. Hewett, the celebrated Bonesetter, 297 Washington street, (two of the most skilful practitioners in Boston,) having witnessed the happy effects of Goelicu's Matchiess Sanutive washes a purish their observer. in several cases which have come under their observation, have given the general Agent of this great modern dinary and far superior to the common nostrains of the day—and there cannot be a doubt, but when the virtues of this great specific shall be daly appreciated by Physicians, they will frankly actnowledge is to be the most valuable addition which has been made to the Materia

Hewit, for two very interesting cases which came within the knowledge of the Doctor. One of the cares as wo the knowledge of the Doctor. One of the cures as wo learn, was effected upon a young lady afflicted with "LUMBER ASSESS"—and so serious was her complaint; that she was unable to submit to Dr. II's, usual mode of treatment in such cases. He advised her to try the Sanative; she did so, and before taking one phial, was entirely cured and not a restige of her disease remains!!!

Another: A gentleman, aged 45, pronounced by all who know him to be in u "Consummed Conscience," was wonderfully restored to health by the use of only one which the Sanative—and he is now well and about his which has greatly releved me. The pain in my side is

Dr. Rowland -I sold a phial of the Matchless Sanative to a gentlemun who was in a Confirmed Consumption pronounced PAST ANY RELIEF and confined to hi room-he had settled his affairs and prepared to meet his fate. He has not taken a whole bottle, and says his health is perfect, that he is entirely well, and imputes the cure to the Sanative and to nothing else. Many others who have takea it make similar statements.

Orland Post Office, Maine, March 30, 1838. Dear Sir -- The Matchles: Senutive has had a wonderful effect in several cases in this town. I sold a phial to: mnn who had been sick with Consumptive and Rheuma-tic complaints for 4 or 5 years, and who was unable to dress dinisely when be commenced taking it. He has re-cently sent me word that he felt quite well, could dress

Dear Sir-- In 48 hours after I received the package of Sanative, I sold all of it-and have come to the conclusion that it must be all that it is recommended to be. It is sufficient to say, that the benefit derived from a shart use of it, has convinced the most prejudiced of its utility. The enclosed money you will pass to my necount, and I wish you to send me more of the Sanative us soon as convenients. Respectfully, &c...

Hartford, Ct. April 12, 1838; Dear Sir-My daughter, who had a distressing cough, and raised a great deal of matter, was efficied with pal-pilation of the heart, has taken a phiul of the Sanative and is now WELL. Others also bear testimony to its Yours respectfully, C. R. COMSTOCK good effects.

Plymoth, Mass. Feb. 6, 1838. Dear Sir -- I have abundance of mntter to rell you concerning the Sanative, where it has performed cures when those who have bought it, had scarcely any faith in its efficiety. We have one person now able to attend to her domestic concerns, who was at the time she commenced taking it, confined to her chamber and prostrate on her bed. I will telt you more when I see you

Dear Sir—Since I last wrote you, I have seen several persons who have been using the Sanative, and in every case it has proved itself, worthy the name it bears. A young man, Robert McIlhery had been wasting away in n scated consumption for the last two years—and by using this medicine about six weeks, his cough, pains, &c. left him entirely, and he is now so well as to be about his or-

Indeed, sir, from the rapidity of the sales, the value of the Sanative may be safely determined. I am wholly out, have daily culls for it, and wish you would forward me more as soon as possible. Yours, &

From the Postmastor of Claremont, N. II. The above powerful and invaluable medicine is doing wonders in this section of the country, as well as in others. Applications for it have been made in various places in this vicinity. A young lady in this town has been restored from a consumption and confirmed in health by the use of it-No mistake. She had been visi ted by various physicians, but all to no purpose. One phial of this medicine produced the long desired effect. A philator this all corons in dicine may be found few more bottles of this calicacious medicine may be found at the Post Office if applied for soon.
